

Solutions

1. B – They enjoyed the same hobbies and encouraged one another.
Ava and Florence both love dancing and Taylor Swift, but their friendship is also strong because they support each other while practising.
2. C – They help each other improve rather than focusing only on dancing well.
Mrs Morgan says the most impressive thing is how kindly they help each other improve.
3. B – The determination to keep trying despite difficulties.
Perseverance means continuing to work hard, even when something is challenging or takes time.
4. C – They discover they have received Taylor Swift concert tickets.
The girls recognise the envelopes and realise their mums have managed to get tickets.
5. B – They continue rehearsing even when the weather forces them indoors.
This shows dedication because they keep practising despite the cold and rain.
6. C – Two of her dancers are unable to continue performing.
Taylor explains that two dancers have been taken ill, so she needs help from the audience.
7. D – Taylor notices them confidently performing the choreography in the crowd.
Ava and Florence begin dancing in the audience, and Taylor spots them on the big screens.
8. B – Astonished.
They are shocked and amazed because they never expected to be invited onto the stage.
9. A – Success comes from working together and supporting one another.
Mrs Morgan reminds them that their teamwork and kindness were just as important as their dancing.
10. C – Consistent practice, teamwork and perseverance can lead to extraordinary opportunities.

The story shows that their big moment happened because of many ordinary lunchtimes spent practising, encouraging each other and refusing to give up.